Life is full of crazy dreamers
And lines of people looking out
Never willing to know what happens
And only just wanna wait to find out

But I know what lies behind their faith and destiny
And I only only want to have mine near to me

Fallen angel, broken wings
Never know just what it means
Fallen angel, broken wings
Ooh, yeah...

I wanna tell you just one more time
That you can make it all so right
With a little thought and desire
You'll surely have the fuel for fire

Willing and hungry inside, their craving souls will never die
Growing desire fills the air tonight

Fallen angel, broken wings
Never know just what it means
Fallen angel, broken wings
Never tell just where I've been
Fallen angel, broken wings
Just the fallen angel...

Fallen angel, broken wings
Never know just what it means
Fallen angel, broken wings
Never tell just where I've been
Fallen angel, broken wings
The fallen angel, the fallen angel
Fallen angel, broken wings
Ooh, yeah...
