Its been a long, cold and lonely winter in my heart Sometimes I look up to the sky, I close my eyes and wonder where you are(is it far?)

They say friends make better lovers
But I was to afraid to seeÂ...

Without you
My world is empty, everythings changed
I need your touch to ease the pain
Of livin without your love
Without you
The nights get longer everyday
IÂ'm prayinÂ' youÂ'll come home again

Did you ever stop and wonder or take the time to see(canÂ't you see?)
The man who wants to be your world
And from the mirror, HeÂ's looking back at me
But he ainÂ't free

It took a lifetime just to find you
But then I let you slip away
Baby come home to stayÂ...

Without you
My world is empty, everythings changed
I need your smile to stop the rain
ItÂ's pouring without your love
Without you
My nights get longer everyday
When are you coming home again?

With another chance, IÂ'd never let you goÂ...

I need you in my life because
Without you
My world is empty, everythings changed
I need your touch to ease the pain
Of livin without your love
Without you

The nights get longer everyday
Iâ€™m prayinâ€™ youâ€™ll come home again

Without you
My world is empty, everythings changed
I need your smile to stop the rain
Itâ€™s pouring without your love
Without you
My nights get longer everyday
When are you coming home again?
