This must be so hard
But from where I stand somehow it seems better
And I don't have the experience to know
The strength or inertia that holds us together

But they're all here
Because I guess we're all here

We'll take off their uniforms, because it's a new world
[2x]
We'll take off our uniforms and we'll try to do

A little better than the best that we can
We always expect the worst, until it's worse [2x]

We'll take off their uniforms, because it's a new world
[2x]
We'll take off our uniforms and we'll try to do
A little better than the best that we can
We always expect the worst, until it's worse [4x]
