What's happening to me can't seem to find my feet
Not feeling like myself can't seem to fall asleep
Too much inside my head, too much won't leave me alone

There is a rogue inside my thoughts, so confusing words unknown

Turned up side down feeling all the sickening
Consuming all the flesh of life's eternity

Diseased newborn society

New world bitter world

Will never last

Born of cannibal's

Funeral rituals

Consuming mans brain

Turning them mad

Eat the meat of a mad cow

Looking to a mass funeral for everyone right now

Diseased conform new society

New world funeral

My own worst enemy

Brain rots inside my head calling me within

My brain is wasted away in a black dark full of sin

My thoughts not my own tear this all away

Now death settles in crumbling the walls

Inside my brain

Within

Slowly rots

Within

Born of cannibal's

Funeral rituals

Consuming mans brain

Turning them mad

Eat the meat of a mad cow

Looking to a mass

Funeral for everyone right now

This prion turning

My body my enemy

My mind is not my own

Now my enemy

Throw it all away

New society

Born of cannibal's
Funeral rituals
