We we're like a fire
And G-d no water will wash us out
As our flame engulfs this fable

These frames on our entropy
I swear they won't contain We'll break them if we're able

Whispers in the darkness
Of a plague on some foreign shore
While our plague is hesitation

They don't want to hear our sharp mouths
They've severed tongues to keep our sharp mouths
shut

I can't see past the shadows on the wall
One by one as my nightmares came to call
Can you see past the shadows
Right now our plague is hesitation

They don't want to hear our sharp mouths
They've severed tongues to keep our sharp mouths
shut

1... 2... 3... Cut us back down
They'll cut us back down
Our roots run deep, but they know where we reside now
They'll Cut us back

I can't see you standing next to me
I can't see you standing next to me
I can't see you standing next to, 'cause our plague is hesitation
