Here standing in the rain
The sun has gone again and nothing's gonna change
Time, I need a little time as you slip out of sight
And nothing heals the pain

And I know that it's you
That's stopping me from falling
Crashing down, losing ground 'til I see you again
And you know

The sun will shine and we will see
There's nothing standing in our way
Love will stand and never break
Never thought this could be me

Do you feel what I feel?
Every time that you are near
It's a beautiful world
A beautiful world

Words are hard to keep inside
Even though I've tried, impossible to hide

And you know that it's me
That's stopping you from falling
Crashing down, losing ground 'til I see you again
And you know

The sun will shine and we will see
There's nothing standing in our way
Love will stand and never break
Never thought this could be me

Do you feel what I feel?
Every time that you are near
It's a beautiful world
A beautiful world

I'll be the stars guiding you
I'll be the place that you hide
I'd run a thousand miles
A thousand miles to be by your side

The sun will shine and we will see
There's nothing standing in our way
Love will stand and never break
Never thought this could be me

Do you feel what I feel?
Every time that you are near
It's a beautiful world
A beautiful world

Do you feel what I feel?
Every time that you are near
It's a beautiful world
A beautiful world

It's a beautiful world
A beautiful world
It's a beautiful world
A beautiful world
It's a beautiful world
