Verse 1

Just the other day somebody
Said to me, hey maybe you're just slightly schizophrenic
And a little out of reach my friend.
I said, yes that's partly true,
But jokes aside, I can explain,
It's just my way of keep in track with Living on this planet now, then
Have you turned on your TV?
Have you seen reality?
Have you found the program, that you spend your whole life looking for?
There's a girl in Camden Town,
And decision makes her frown.
Which dress would she wear today and which way should she smile at me?

Chorus

How did it come to this?
How did it ever come to this?

Verse 2

All this noise and all this lies,
All this talking through the nights,
All this expectation now,
It's making me neurotic, tell me
Have I seen your face before?
Have forgot to say hello!
Though I'd made it clear now,
That I've always been a smiler, tell me

Chorus

How did it come to this?
How did it ever come to this? (x2)

Bridge

Sometimes it's like I'm a world away
Sometimes I feel a world away

Verse 3

Just the other day somebody

Said to me, hey maybe you're also slightly
OCD, a little out of reach my friend.
I said, yes that's partly true,
But jokes aside, please stay with me,
It's just my way of compartmentalising
All the things I see

Chorus

How did it come to this?

How did it ever come to this? (x2)
