I'm tired of closing my eyes to picture you in my mind
It feels so cold to be alone
Not sure where I want to be, so close to finding my dream
We need to hold on to all the times we spoke of love
Now I pray to God above that someday
I can find the door I'm looking for

I can make it, I know I can
I can save this love forever
I can make it, I know I can
We can make this work together
Together

It's not a lonely man's dream, it's just that now
That there's been a taste of love in my life
That I refuse to return, I've got so much to, to learn How can I feel as though I've reached the top of this steep hill
For a moment I was standing still
Now I have the faith I've needed to believe that

I can make it, I know I can
I can save this love forever
I can make it, I know I can
I can make this work together

'Cause you know what this love means to me
You know how it feels when I can see it in your face
That you're missing me now, you feel I've let you down You've gotta hold on, you've gotta reach out and believe

We can make this work together
'Cause I believe to make love forever

I can make this world a better place for me and you
(We can make this world a better place)
I can make this world a better place for me and you
(We can make it, we can make it, we can make this together)
I can make this world a better place for me and you

(We can make this world a better place)
I can make this world a better place for me and you
