

Take That "Throwing Stones"

I threw stones at your window
The windows not broken and
Nobody answers the phone
I'm here on my own
In this place

No more love in the bedroom
No more dancing on this floor
Oh no, so alone, just throwing stones

The only one I ever loved
Is the one I lost today
The only one I ever loved
Is the one I threw away.

She's gone with no warning
She's made her decision
She's walking the road
Now she's gone
I'm here on my own
In this place

With the ghosts of reflection
With the thoughts of a cruel blow
Throwing stones, oh no, I'm so alone

The only one I ever loved
Is the one I lost today
The only one I ever loved

Is the one I threw away.

She's gone (she's gone)
She's gone (she's gone)
Taking all the sentiment with her
She's gone (she's gone)
She's gone (she's gone)
I saw a look upon her face

She's gone (she's gone)
She's gone (she's gone)
Taking all the sentiment with her

She's gone
She's gone
To find herself a better place, woah,

The only one I ever loved
Is the one I lost today
The only one I ever loved
Is the one I threw away.

The only one I ever loved
Is the one I lost today
The only one I ever loved
Is the one I threw away.
