Lyrics: Johan

No true form. Like wind, spreading unnoticed
Not to be seen, it takes different shapes, using men as hosts

When a new host is taken, an old one dies

Evil, the great deceiver

No cure for this fever

A man proven evil (by the good)

Is taken by force

Tortured to confess

The circle is closed

Evil that rises again has found it's new host

Evil, greatest in disguise

Undetected it will rise

Eyes. it's only weakness

Though invisible, the reflection shows

Deep black, enemy arise in everyone

Spreading it's lies

Don't trust anything but the eyes

Lives in it's empire we call earth

Never to disappear

The darkness gives birth

Evil appears
