I can never repay it, I can never repay it, I can never repay it.
First time, started out like friends
But now I don't know
Your wish is to get me drunk
You're a bottle with soul
Is it because that I don't wanna change?
Is it really so hard to quit this game?
Now tell me
Come as you are, show me the way
Hold back my tears, come back and stay
Come as you are, show me the way
Hold back my tears, come back and stay
I can never repay it, I can never repay it, I can never repay it.
Alright are you going home, please come to me
I quit, I'm sober now and it's scaring me
Is it because that I don't wanna change?
Is it really so hard to quit this game?
Now tell me
Come as you are, show me the way
Hold back my tears, come back and stay
Come as you are, show me the way
Hold back my tears, come back and stay
I will always search your wisdom
It's coming over me
Your taste is just like heaven
And it will always set me free
Come as you are, show me the way
Hold back my tears, come back and stay
Come as you are, show me the way
Hold back my tears, come back and stay
