Im waiting for you to call but I got to do it myself, I wonder why
How can I be so Insecure when I don't mind
When you looked at me and said; I think you're mine
I fell in love with you tonight
I used to go by your house, if you were there, I'd wait all night
Every time you appear I always want to be there
In your eyes I see the sign, Im alive
I fell in love with you tonight
The tears and joy keep us together
I need a sign again, will we ever
The years go by and we try to get it on I wonder why If we only could turn back time, go back to us and be alive
