[Intro][3X]

"Just freak that"

"Just freak that"

"Just freak that..yeah like that"

[Verse 1: Mr. Dong]

I guess some brother is back again with some fat-ass blend

In search of the ends and the fat-ass skins

The trends I ain't with see I'm on my own shit

I'm an innovator and not an imitator

A perpetuator of some slick-ass lyrics

A motivator of fly dips on they hips, hah

How much greater than your average emcee

And like Whodini said: It all comes down to the money

It's all real, so a brother can't slip

And if I slip don't trip somebody's catchin' the hot clip

Cause I flip the script, something quick

And if you tryin' to take g's off than I'ma squeeze off

And if you coward ass dip in some wood, yeah

Cause where I'm at it's all good, check it

Yo, I advise you not to fuck with my money

Dummy, see I'm the motherfuckin' man

[Hook][3X]

"Just freak that"

"Just freak that..yeah like that"

"So let the man, the man"

[Verse 2: Mr. Dong]

And now I'm bouncin' off the block showin' love to my folks

Cause money where I'm at it ain't no joke

Brothers fallin' off on the daily

And if you slip kids is lookin' at you crazy

And yo them honeys lookin' for the fat men with money

To make they cloudy days sunny, hah

But now, see I see behind that sketch

Money I get with the honeys with they own checks

And then I school 'em, no need to rule 'em

I show 'em mad skills, give 'em something they can feel

I put chills on they back when I'm comin'
I'm make 'em feel like 200% wanted
Ain't that something, yeah fly indeed
'tend to suck it up like it's Thai weed
And if you hit it too hard you'll be chokin'
I fill it like the club and have that ass wide open
I'm the man

[Hook][3X]

"Go rock that" (4X)

[Verse 3: Mr. Dong]

I heard some brothers from the click say the game was thick
So I bounce on the scene with the afro pick, heh
So I can get shit fluffy
They say rhyme pays so nowadays I'm livin' lovely
I'm puttin' moods in the inner city streets
With clever type rhymes and these smooth-ass beats, yeah
I do this shit frequently
I spread cool vibes through the frequency
I got peoples in New York and brothers in LA
And folks in Detroit know throughout the Bay
Brothers that's flossin' know the deal, hah
Like the Guru said they want some Mass Appeal
But I chill and let my lyrics expand
And let these kids know that I'm the motherfucking
man
Word..
I chill and let my lyrics expand
And let these kids know that I'm the motherfucking

[Hook][till fade]
