"Breathe"

Love was calling me; I could feel it inside of my head.
Never held you close, all I want is for you to be real.

Can you feel this pain?
Break the silence between us, break the silence
between us.

Breathe in, breathe out.
Can you feel I'm in the air you breathe inside of you, so cold.

Let me come inside, I can stay with you if you want.
No one else I need, all I want is for this to be real.

Can you feel this pain?
Break the silence between us, break the silence
between us.

Breathe in, breathe out.
Can you feel I'm in the air you breathe inside of you, so
cold.

Breathe in, breathe out.
Can you feel I'm in the air you breathe inside of you,
Breathe in, breathe out.
Can you feel I'm in the air you breathe inside of you, so cold, so cold.
