I'm jaded just like you've been,
I'm screaming for your touch again, again, again
If only just another could help me it's not to much, you can, I can, we can

If I knew your name, I would never take back all my thoughts
If it's all the same, take another way now to my arms

I'm searching in the dark, hey!
I'm reaching for your love again, again, again Oh my darling, can we get a breakthrough, I want it like before

If I knew your name, I would never take back all my
thoughts
If it's all the same, take another way now to my arms

thoughts
If it's all the same, take another way now to my arms

thoughts
If it's all the same, take another way now to my arms

If I knew your name
