(How will I know?)
If only it could happen
(I hear you call)
You just keep feeding the pain,
(I wanna know)
Surreal makes it better,
(How will I know?)
Iâ€™m digging a hole in the ground

How come we didnâ€™t get further,
Iâ€™m blaming you and my wicked piece of mind
Back in the hole again,
Back in the hole again,
Back in the hole, I still live in a lie

In time everything will be alright,
But now Iâ€™m craving for a sign
Now itâ€™s so far away,
Now itâ€™s so far away,
Making love without love, will I ever find?

(How will I know?)
If only it could happen
(I hear you call)
You just keep feeding the pain,
(I wanna know)
Surreal makes it better,
(How will I know?)
Iâ€™m digging a hole in the ground

(How will I know?)
If only it could happen
(I hear you call)
You just keep feeding the pain,
(I wanna know)
Surreal makes it better,
(How will I know?)
Iâ€™m digging a hole in the ground

Just keep feeding the pain
Enchanted by you and your life
Just keep feeding the pain

Your touch is something Iâ€™m not used to
Itâ€™s not alright, escaping from safety in life
Donâ€™t wanna fall for you,
Donâ€™t wanna fall for you,
Uncertain love is so easy to find

Not pure self-pity is a dark foe
I know, but itâ€™s my only friend somehow
Break the selfish wall,
Break the selfish wall,
Once a man now a boy whoâ€™s fumbling in the dark

(How will I know?)
If only it could happen
(I hear you call)
You just keep feeding the pain,
(I wanna know)
Surreal makes it better,
(How will I know?)
Iâ€™m digging a hole in the ground

(How will I know?)
If only it could happen
(I hear you call)
You just keep feeding the pain,
(I wanna know)
Surreal makes it better,
(How will I know?)
Iâ€™m digging a hole...
