Touching me is no good, I'm having a fallback
The bones are rushing still not intact
I'm colder now what I'm feeling is not right
Pull the trigger now yeah it's alright

Is this what it feels like to be alive?
Then I don't wanna be here dark line
I was always hoping for someone to be on my side
Right but it's time to see the true blind in your eyes
Well it's my life

Do you see the pouring rain on my left side?
Can you see the dying bride on my right side?
Blood's running down my hands it's alright
This is my last goodbye it feels right, so right

Is this what it feels like to be alive?
Then I don't wanna be here dark line
I was always hoping for someone to be on my side
Right but it's time to see the true blind in your eyes
Well it's my life, my life

It's my life, it's my life
It's my life, my life
