"One Of A Kind"

I don't know what people say but,
I know that it's been on my mind
It feels like that I'm doing wrong yeah,
And it feels like, I cannot find
All the things I should regret, give me just one clue

Please tell me you haven't been hurt now,
I don't mean it, that's just who I am Oh mother, you have told me all the right things but now I'm bad

Can I leave it all behind,
I use to be one of a kind

Are you ready, are you ready now?

How did we get this far in life?
