All the things you can remember
Keep it hidden in your heart
I hold you tight and you'll surrender
Fear is growing deep in your eyes

Everything comes out of you now
I'm in ecstasy you burn
Come take my hand and we'll find one
Stories repeating here in my mind

I love you, I count you in
I love you, time to begin
I love you, I'm almost in
I love you, count you in

This is all I ever wanted
Try to believe it for myself
Take your last breath and follow
Everyone who's truly divine

I love you, I count you in
I love you, time to begin
I love you, I'm almost in
I love you...

See the light and you're dead
See the light and you'll fall
See the light and you're dead like her before
See the light in the dark
See the light it's your spell
See the light in the dark, there's no one you can tell
