Tell the rabble you won't give in, tell them safe, we all have sins
Tell them, fall back, the weak one's in the ring

And even though I'm scared but true
I will not give the pleasure to you
I will break you by ignoring all the hate

Bullies are lonely, you're falling down

Walking on by, leave them all behind
Tell it to them straight, you have to give up the hate
Walking on by, no one has to hide
Depending on the faith, you know it's never too late

No more lost for the words, nothing you say will hurt
It is time to see them, I'm stronger than you ever were

Bullies are lonely, you're falling down

Walking on by, leave them all behind
Tell it to them straight, you have to give up the hate
Walking on by, no one has to hide
Depending on the faith, you know it's never too late

Darker days are over, give up the hate
Angers getting you nowhere

You know it's never to late

Walking on by, leave them all behind
Tell it to them straight, you have to give up the hate
Walking on by, no one has to hide
Depending on the faith, you know it's never too late
