You can take away my wings
Because I will never be an angel
You can take away my dreams
I just have one, it's about loving the enemy

You can take away my pride
I don't need it in this forgotten town
You can take away my soul
Forever and always it will be the unknown

(How can I be mad at you)
(When you don't even exist?)
No one hears when I cry
Would you care if I died?
Failing point is so near
Is it your fault or is it my mind?

Speak your mind, speak your mind or live on with the lie

No one hears when I cry
Would you care if I died?
Failing point is so near
Is it your fault or is it my mind?

No one hears when I cry
Would you care if I died?
Failing point is so near
Is it your fault or is it my mind?
