I wonder what you'll say
About nonsense of Darvin tales.
You listen legends about humanism
Of people and society. Your mind is dreaming.
My ears twist from disposition.
I feel the alien information.
We loss the sensible fulcrum.
History turn into dead time.
I wanna be free!
You get used to intrude.
One's views upon me.
You think that only your
Opinion is right.
We'll fight till obliteration.
God give me a scale for blood.
Make a war with nature constructions is
Make a millions grave-yards.
What's the aim of the human creation?
Troopers of death isn't for life!
Sick any virtue on the crucifixion.
Rape all the sergeons! You're Gods!
I give the lie to your foolish mind.
You know that life with energy
Is better than oilstave.
You won but wrong. I can see your bones.
The masses of worms. They swarm in torso
Of big and decayed houses without any hopes.
You cry! Across the door in madness eyes
You see the war by life and light. You roar.
You roar!
