"In The End"

When the walls came tumbling down were you there to save me?
The cemetery gates, cemetery gates
I'm still alive

Be still the voice inside my head
Plan 9, walk among the dead
I'm insane

In the eyes of recognition
I can feel the darkness
The cemetery gates, cemetery gates
I'm still alive

In the end we fall
Will you all shine?

You fall, I'll shine
You fall, I'm still alive
You fall, I'll shine
You fall, I'm still alive

In the end we fall
Will you all shine?
