"Killing Machine"

Carved your name into my skin. In candlelight
Sew it up with hate
Carve a message in my arm. In candlelight.

Found my misery. With a match and gasoline
Burned alive, I am a killing machine
A whole life I'm silent
Found my destiny. With a match and gasoline
Liars burn and scream. A whole life indebted to you

The silence of pain. Insane love I feel Cobain can you hear me scream. A whole life indebted to you
The silence of pain. Insane I feel love. Sick not to hurt
I want to watch the world burn
