"King On Holiday"

Visit "King On Holiday" on MotoLyrics.com

This open letter read
I'm gone on holiday"
Started off as a secret headline
"The king has passed away"
Goodbye to the world
Goodbye to the pain
Goodbye to the screaming children
Your hero passed away

Hey hey hey
If you ever catch a glimpse of hell, would you kill time?
All the lives are torn
Every bastard mourns
Would you kill yourself?

I was born to suffer this fame
I sold my sould for dirt
Goodbye to the legend Elvis
Goodbye this whole shit world.
