Blessed is the luxury of the dead
Broke, so I sold my breath
For pennies I am worthless

I feel a brazen cacophony
Of wave crashing, heart pounding
Gut wrenching lonely
I paid the voices, you scream so loud
Subscribe to the medicine show
Where the walls melt away
And my doctors so proud

[Chorus]
Brin me pain, bring me horror
I'm not sick, I'm not insane
Aslyum hospital colder
Fuck you and all of your friends

I stand on the threshold of death
Where my torture and beating
Subsides for a moment
I pay the price for eating rats
Subscribe to the medicine show
Where the walls melt away
And the world has gone mad

[Chorus]

My blood is cold as this snow
And cobbletone I tread upon
I'm fucking sick don't take me
I'm fucking sick don't take me

[Repeat x1]

[Chorus]
