Burn your friends
Burn your friends
Burn your friends
Burn your friends

Living is easy
With your eyes closed by and by
Do you wake up
Do you wake up and cry at night?
The evil inside
That breaks right through the light
With hard times and long goodbyes

Well, take me into your
Dark dream and scream so loud
This place fills with misery, suffer the kiss
And take me out alive

We are those things that you despise
(We will sing)
We are the suffering alive

Burn your friends
Burn your friends
Burn your friends
Burn your friends

Shadows and hearts
In which to carry your rule aloud
Can you believe we are
The shock of existence now

Something's amiss
And this generation has been found
We're brought to the underground

Waste me to your dark dream
And taste me until all I see
A thousand sparks we fake
Love futility, I see the rain

We are those things that you despise

(We will sing)
We are the suffering alive tonight
(Suffering)

We are those things that you despise
(We will sing)
We are the suffering alive tonight

This time we're coming home worthless
This time, this time alive
This time, this time alive
This time, this time alive
This time, this time alive

This time, this time alive
This time, this time alive
This time, this time alive
This time, this time alive
We will sing

We are those things that you despise
(We will sing)
We are the suffering alive tonight
(Suffering)

We are those things that you despise
(We will sing)
We are the suffering alive
