Why must we die, you can't deny, the right to survive
Why are you killing the world

Inhabitants of this dying world
This earth we call our home
Man is turning everything
Into fire, burning stone

Lust for power, goes round and round
They won't stop until we hit the ground
Imminent danger, they refuse to see
Destroying the land, polluting the seas

Killing the world
Open up your eyes and see
Killing the world
Destroying all that lives and breathes

Toxic waste and acid rain
Pollution fills the skies
They knew that it would have to end
They knew it was a lie

Lust for power, goes round and round
They won't stop until we hit the ground
Imminent danger, they refuse to see
Destroying the land, polluting the seas
What is the solution, to this mad mad world
Who's gonna stop them, they don't even care
About you or me, about land or sea
We're heading for destruction, the thought is killing me

Multinational corporations planning to deceive
Nature's balance disrupted now, it's plain for all to see

Their lust for power, goes round and round
They won't stop until we hit the ground
Imminent danger, they refuse to see
Destroying the world, polluting the seas

Killing the world
Open up your eyes and see

Killing the world
Destroying all that lives and breathes

Killing the world, Killing the world
Killing the world, Killing the world
Killing the world, Killing the world
They're all killing the world
