I've been away so long
Never thought I'd return
But somehow I had to get back to see you again
I've been thru some bad times
Yes, I've been thru hell
Too many days when I've cried in vain
I'm riding on the wings of passion, so high!
And out of the darkness I'm guided by a light
Now I'm comin' home, comin' home
Gotta find my way back home, comin' home
There is no mystery
To what the future holds in store
Cause who is in need of a key to an open door?
But I'm not afraid
Cause I see the light
It's worth all the tears that I cried in vain
I'm riding on the wings of passion, so high!
And out of the darkness I'm guided by a light
Now I'm comin' home, comin' home
Gotta find my way back home, comin' home
Yes, I'm riding on the wings of passion, so high!
And out of the darkness I'm guided by a light
I see a light, a light shining bright
Now I'm comin' home, comin' home
Gotta find my way back home, comin' home
Now I'm comin' home, comin' home
Gotta find my way back home, comin' home
Comin' home, comin' home...
