Where is the love that U promised, we'd all get R share?

Where's all the hope that's supposedly stored 4 despair?

Take all the tears, now I'm begging U please
My soul won't B dropped anymore
Feed me the truth, now I'll tell U no lies
We won't walk alone, we'll win in this fabricated war

Like flesh 2 the blood, it's the source that divides R lives
While faith is in question, we'll do what we need 2 survive

Who will U cry 2 now? How can U die without?
The battle's begun, you're going down

U may wonder where we go from here, but let me tell U again
It's all an illusion of vainly dreams, you'll find what U
need in the end

Take all the tears, now I'm begging U please
My soul won't B dropped anymore
Feed me the truth, now I'll tell U no lies
We won't walk alone, we'll win in this fabricated war

We'll win this war...

Tell me who will U cry 2 now? Tell me how can U die without?

We'll win this war...
