Some cold white day, but you're crazy if you think I would leave you this way

You should wake up before the wrath comes (me and you) could take off before the wrath
comes...soon

And one of these days I pray it will be sometime soon On a day like today, you'd be crazy not to want me to teach you the way

You should wake up before the wrath comes
(me and you) could take off before the wrath
comes...soon

Well I know what you're like - I've read it on the walls You're too tired, you choose heaven over the earth and me but come on please...

You should wake up before the wrath comes (me and you) could take off before the wrath comes Well (maybe you) should take off (yeah you) should take off
