I kick my heart above your door way hanging christ like bleeding cold the well within my soul 'cause the rosy air im breathing shame ..yea

I wait to say who's but ever linger poop is what your head does everlong around my finger who said me so scared and hold

Plastic seems to seal my eyes shut God she must be crazy wait in shame I wait so long but I'm too goddamn lazy

"I'll get mine" she said over and over who's that in your hole and one and all its been a long time you cant keep me inside

Kick the door
if you ever linger wade in lies around my finger no more scarecrows scared I hold
