The Chauffuer

Out on the tar plains the glides are moving

All looking for a new place to drive

You sit beside me so newly charming

Sweating dew drops glisten freshing your side

The sun slips down bedding heavy blind

The front of your dress all shadowy lined

Aand the drowning engine throbs in time

With your beating heart

Sing Blue Silver

Way down the lane away living for another day

The aphids swarm up in the drifting haze

Swim seagull in the empty sky on towards that western isle

My envied lady holds you fast in her gaze

And watch as lovers part I feel you smiling

What glass splinters lie so deep in your mind

To tear out from your eyes with a word to stiffen brooding lies

But I'll only watch you leave me further behind
