My darling when you are far away
Longing for the touch of a hand
Without even a whisper
Cover and put out your hands
As soon as I think of you
You will feel the touch
You say, alone ah
And I say, alone ah
And they are heard as one
My eyes cry for you
Your eyes cry for me
It is one tear
I know you and feel you and I see my eyes in your eyes
As if I was in your embrace
And my eyes have spent many hours crying for you without my sadness or yours

If every soul is in a place
My darling we always have a place that gathers us together
Not time nor man nor fear nor forgetting nor death will stop us
