"Dear John"

Visit "Dear John" on MotoLyrics.com

You had just walked in from work
And there's a letter in the kitchen
With your name on it
Inside, you will find
An answer for each question you have

You had to know the day would come
That I'd find out that you are a liar
And a player and the list goes on
So it hurts you now
But it would hurt even more if I stayed

So hope that you can understand
That you were once my man
But it's time to move on
Since you're playing games, oh

You thought the day would never come
Never ever thought that you
Would be reading 'Dear John'
You be sure to read each line
Line by line and take your time

You thought the day would never come
Never ever thought that you
Would be reading 'Dear John'
By the time you read this letter
I'll be feeling much better
So long, that means I'm gone

Guess that you are wondering
"How did she know that I
Was the type to play you?"
If you read, you'll find out

I have to admit
That I was right from the start
And I never took the time to ask myself
Why, oh, why would you waste your time
On a nigga in the club with a group of thugs?

You shoulda known it was on

When I kept calling your job
And they said that you were sick
And so I paged you, don't get no call back
Now it all makes sense

The two of us are not meant to be
So by the time you read this letter
And try to make things better
Save your lines but read each one of mine

Wish you'd see your game
Was not strong enough
To keep me holding on
Now you be strong, time for me to go

'Coz you thought the day would never come
Never ever thought that you
Would be reading 'Dear John'
You be sure to read each line
Line by line and take your time

You thought the day would never come
Never ever thought that you
Would be reading 'Dear John'
By the time you read this letter
I'll be feeling much better
So long, that means I'm gone

You thought the day would never come
Never ever thought that you
Would be reading 'Dear John'
You be sure to read each line
Line by line and take your time

You thought the day would never come
Never ever thought that you
Would be reading 'Dear John'
By the time you read this letter
I'll be feeling much better
So long, that means I'm gone

I wish I could see the look on your face
Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha
And you wish you could just see my face
No, no, no, no, no, no

You thought I was playin' when I said you had
One more time, one more time
But if you can play this game
Then I can play it too

'Coz you thought the day would never come
Never ever thought that you
Would be reading 'Dear John'
You be sure to read each line
Line by line and take your time

You thought the day would never come
Never ever thought that you
Would be reading 'Dear John'
By the time you read this letter
I'll be feeling much better
So long, that means I'm gone

You thought the day would never come
Never ever thought that you
Would be reading 'Dear John'
You be sure to read each line
Line by line and take your time

You thought the day would never come
Never ever thought that you
Would be reading 'Dear John'
By the time you read this letter
I'll be feeling much better
So long, that means I'm gone

You thought the day would never come
Never ever thought that you
Would be reading 'Dear John'
