Can anybody tell me what I'm doing here
I try to stay alive in a world of fear
I just look out my window and guess what I see?
All those kinds of misery, it makes my angry

[Chorus]

Can anybody tell me why? Can anybody tell me how?
Can anybody tell me why? Can anybody tell me how?

Can anybody tell me if there is life after death?
Where do I go after I've taken my last breath?
Don't tell me that's something only God knows Cause I've never met Jesus and I don't like muppetshows

[Chorus]

My head is full of questions about this life
There is none who can tell my which way to survive
I just don't know which way I have to choose
Maybe I will win but at the end I will loose
But I'm not a coward and I'll choose to fight
The future will learn what's wrong and what's right

[Chorus]

Can anybody tell me who gave us the right? T
He right to call us human the right to kill & fight
We destroy a beautiful world that isn't eve ours
But once it is enough within years or maybe hours!

No one, No one, No one can tell me why!
