Are you all awake, can you hear me loud and clear
Make the building shake, let your worries disappear
Listen to me now, everybody in the crowd
Let me show you how, make some noise and make it count

Open up your cage, bend the bars and brake the lock
Turn to face the stage, let it rock

Come together all the reckless girls and boys
All together let us shout and make some noise
What you see is what you need and what you get
Make you body slick and wet with heavy sweat

Can you feel the heat, feel the people close to you Isn't life just sweet, when you live it through and through
Raise your hands and wave, share your joy with everyone
Beautiful and brave, bless and cheering of the sun

Open up your cage, bend the bars and brake the lock
Turn to face the stage, let it rock

Come together all the reckless girls and boys
All together let us shout and make some noise
What you see is what you need and what you get
Make you body slick and wet with heavy sweat

You are wild and free, never wrong and always right
Turn us now 'cause we, gonna rock the night

(2x)

Come together all the reckless girls and boys
All together let us shout and make some noise
What you see is what you need and what you get
Make you body slick and wet with heavy sweat
