Now it's a celebration
Oh, girl, let's celebrate
Yeah, it's a celebration
Oh, girl, let's celebrate

Baby, tonight, I'm yours
Come on and unwrap your gift
No you can't find it in stores
Some tailor made for you kinda

It's oh, you don't wanna miss this
Feels like it's Christmas
Like oh
Yeah, it's a holiday but I'm open for business

We got a bottle of that rose
Baby, we gon' celebrate
Make it feel like it's your birthday
Baby, girl, let's celebrate

Private after party
I can't wait to celebrate
All up on your body
Baby, you're my celebration

4th of July right between your thighs
It's like fireworks just light up the sky
Don't need no reservation, you're my invitation
To this love making, this a celebration

When you last close the door
I 'bout to teach you this sex education
Since you passed every course
Hats off to your graduation

It's like oh, you don't wanna miss this
Feels like it's Christmas
Like oh
Yeah, it's a holiday but I'm open for business

We got a bottle of that rose
Baby, we gon' celebrate

Make it feel like it's your birthday
Baby girl, let's celebrate

Private after party
I can't wait to celebrate
All up on your body
Baby, you're my celebration

4th of July right between your thighs
It's like fireworks just light up the sky
Don't need no reservation, you're my invitation
To this love making, this a celebration

How'd I do? How'd I do? Baby, tell me how you feel?
They say real girls ain't never perfect, perfect girls ain't real
I'd agree but I guess we'll just wait and see
'Cause I swear you act like perfect is the only way to be

Nothing matters 'cept for you
Don't let no one out here blind you
Don't remember why you love me
Please allow me to remind you

And I know you left me once
But I came right back to find you
Even though I like being in your past
You got a bright future behind you

Ooh damn, ooh, girl, I must admit I look amazing next to you
Girl, you crazy, sexy, cool
And you stayed obsessed to school
But that's good 'cause you know that them grades impress me too

And my free days are just for you but I don't get many It's like every time we spend time it feels like the first time
'Cause we never spend enough time
You catch me at the worst time

It ain't like you're not worth time just I don't control it
But tonight, I made it happen
Just to celebrate the moment
Give it up one time

I just wanna celebrate the night with you
Brought some party favors, someone light it up
If that's alright with you
How you feeling now? Tryna lay it down

We can count down
5, 4, 3, 2, 1

We got a bottle of that rose
Baby, we gon' celebrate
Make it feel like it's your birthday
Baby girl, let's celebrate

Private after party, I can't wait to celebrate
All up on your body
Baby, you're my celebration

4th of July right between your thighs
It's like fireworks just light up the sky
Don't need no reservation, you're my invitation
To this love making, this a celebration

Give it up one time
One time
Celebrate the moment
Give it up one time
