Well, well
Come on everybody wave ya hands
If ya feel me
I know we got some lovin up in here
Everybody hear me sang..

[verse 1:]

It's been a long time comin
But a change is bound to come
Somehow i knew, i'd lose you
Cuz of the man that i've become
Only reason for you stayin for me
Is you remember what we had
I'd give up the brightest future
To get those old flames back

[bridge:]

I never, ever meant to
Waste yo time (i want u to know)
Everytime i said i love u
It wasn't no lie (i want u to know)
That i miss livin
That's a cold feelin
Without you in my life
That's a slow killin
But i know better
You deserve better
And do whatever
Forever i...

[chorus:]

I love u
If this is the end
And we don't talk again
Let me say
That i love u
Somehow i went wrong
Hope u hearin this song
Let me say
That i'm sorry for not being the man
I promised i'd always be
But i love you

And that's just the real

Hope u still feel it
Coming from me

[verse 2:]

It's been a long time comin
Now everybody knows my name
Seems i've traded in my woman
For this fortune and fame
The times she really needed me
And her faith was runnin low
I took time to please everyone else
But not the one closest to my soul

[bridge:]

I never, ever meant to
Waste yo time (i want u to know)
Everytime i said i love u
It wasn't no lie (i want u to know)
That i miss livin
That's a cold feelin
Without you in my life
That's a slow killin
But i know better
You deserve better
And do whatever
Forever i...

[chorus:]

I love u
If this is the end
And we don't talk again
Let me say
That i love u
Somehow i went wrong
Hope u hearin this song
Let me say
That i'm sorry for not being the man
I promised i'd always be
But i love you
And that's just the real
Hope u still feel it
Coming from me
