I'll still announce I'm home when I get in from work
The thought of you bein' there erases all the hurt
I check the fridge 'cause dinner ain't sittin' on the table
I wanna try to eat but, girl, I just ain't able

Am I trippin', did you really tell me it's over?
Did you pack your bags and drive off in my Range
Rover?
Maybe I, maybe I, maybe I should've loved you so much more
'Cause my heart don't wanna let go

Still got your picture right next to my bed
Still smell the perfume that you used to wear
The life I had with you is all I know
And my heart don't wanna let go

Girl, you know that I've tried to live without you, baby
But I'll still miss you like crazy
Without you here, this house is so damn cold
'Cause my heart don't wanna, my heart don't wanna let go

Oh, I'll leave the seat up and expect to hear your mouth
My clothes ain't washed or folded, what's that all about?
My bowls, my cups, my plates done piled up in the kitchen
I'm steady callin' your name but it seems like you ain't listenin'

Am I trippin', did you really tell me it's over?
Did you pack your bags and drive off in my Range
Rover?
Maybe I, maybe I, maybe I should've loved you so much
'Cause my heart don't wanna let go

Still got your picture right next to my bed
Still smell the perfume that you used to wear
The life I had with you is all I know
And my heart don't wanna let go

Girl, you know that I've tried to live without you, baby
But I still miss you like crazy
Without you here this house is so damn cold
'Cause my heart don't wanna, my heart don't wanna let

Girl, you must not understand how much I need you
I'm incomplete without you
I had to be a fool to even try to

Baby, can you find it in your heart?
Give us a chance, I'll right this wrong
I'm begging you to come back home
Girl, I know right here's where you belong

Still got your picture right next to my bed
Still smell the perfume that you used to wear
The life I had with you is all I know
And my heart don't wanna let go

Girl, you know that I've tried to live without you, baby
But I still miss you like crazy
Without you here this house is so damn cold
Oh, my heart don't wanna, my heart don't wanna let go
Oh, my heart don't wanna let go
