"Necrosoldier"

I'm still waked up by the sound of life
Crushed in me, I'm only too aware of it
Deprived of will, my heart is still beating
I'm just the witness of my darkest deeds

Created by the madness of a man
Programmed to kill and spread pain

I've burst the eyes of evil by staring at it
Drowned in chaos. If I could flee that doom...
So much lives aborted, always by my hand
So much faces slashed, always in my head

Cause I remember my birth
In this box tainted of blood
Where flames were making love all around
And where deads were telling me stories

Created by the madness of a man
Programmed to kill and spread pain
Animated to destroy existence
My order is thou death sentence
