We wanna feel the heat
The blinding light, the deafening noise
Let our rage burn the ground
And the sweat vanish in the air
We wanna see the eyes
So full of pain, so full of hate
We've got only one thing to do
And we won't let it go

Scream the words
Of rebellion
Spread your wings
Fly away from this
Scream the words
Of rebellion
Materialize your feelings
Use them as a weapon

Be ready for
A new way of thinking

Think of A New Kind

Cursed be the ones who stand
On the path of liberty
Those who are preventing us
From going forward
The very ones who lead us
To our fucking loss
Down! We will drag them down
And we won't let them go

Scream the words
Of rebellion
Make them rot
Fight for what is right
Scream the words
Of rebellion
Tear apart your shell
Crawl as far as you can

Be ready for
A new way of thinking

Think of A New Kind (T.A.N.K)
Break the rules, now (T.A.N.K)
Open up your eyes (T.A.N.K)
No time to waste

We still wanna feel the heat
The blinding light, the deafening noise
Our rage is burning inside you
The eyes seems now wide open

Scream the words
Of rebellion
As one we...
We will make it real
Scream the words
Of rebellion
Writing our own story
Pain will be inflicted

T.A.N.K
