I wish you'd know how it felt to be empty
Up in the mansion and pushing a Bentley
Look at the cards on my flowers he said to me
Just to disguise the truth
That he ain't never gonan be faithful
He ain't never gonna be thankful
Even know I give all of me in
He ain't never gonna be thankful
Cause this means that he paying for
And now I see that it's all wrong, wrong, wrong
The ,style made me look the other way, but it's all
wrong, wrong
I gotta find the strength to walk away
Cause it's all wrong

Packed all the bags so the trust looks so empty
Here goes the keys to the house and your Bentley
Thanks for the cards and the flowers you sent me
But they can't disguise the truth
That you ain't never gonan be faithful
You ain't never gonna be thankful
Even know I give all of me in
You ain't never gonna be thankful
Cause this means that you paying for
And now I see that it's all wrong, wrong, wrong
The ,style made me look the other way, but it's all
wrong, wrong
I gotta find the strength to walk away
So I'll be moving on It's what I keep , stay too long
, I'll be strong, I'll be strong yeah
Cause I know deep inside ,
And it's all wrong, wrong, wrong
The ,style made me look the other way, but it's all
wrong, wrong
I gotta find the strength to walk away.
