Welcome to the Lost and Found
Here we breed someone for everyone
From fine clones to big bones
Juicy to fruity
You'll find exactly what you're looking for Just sign here on the dotted line
And welcome to your deepest desire

What makes you think that he'll be up at the Lost and Found?
What makes you run away, looking for something that I ain't
Do I bore you, do I ignore you when we hang out every night?
Was it those words that I said when we had our last fight?

One, What's the matter with me it's not my fault that you can't see Two, You got the best thing right here, standin' in front of you and Three, No matter what you say, you will return to me one day
Four, You can't forget my sound so go find him, at the Lost and Found

I know you gotta do what you gotta do
When you need to do, what you gotta do
I understand it cause I know I've been there too
And there ain't no one better for you
So when you need to do what you need to do
Listen around and you will hear my sound
Coming to ya, boom boom right through ya
Like no other
At the Lost and Found

What makes you think that he'll be up at the Lost and Found?
Do you see that you lost me when you sipped on orange tea?
With the oscar nominee for his role in screwing me
Out of love, romance once had, sure does make me really mad but

I know you'll return some day
I know I'm the only way
You'll never find solid ground
Even at the Lost and Found

I know you gotta do what you gotta do
When you need to do, what you gotta do
I understand it cause I know I've been there too
And there ain't no one better for you
So when you need to do what you need to do
Listen around and you will hear my sound
Coming to ya, boom boom right through ya
Like no other
At the Lost and Found

It don't matter how far you might go
Time will bring you back to me I know
(All I want is for you to be mine)
When I think about who you might meet
It don't bother me I can compete
(All I want is for you to be mine)
Every day I go with out you
Testifies that what we had was true
(All I want is for you to be mine)
When I see you get your heart broke
It hurts me so bad cause
Baby, baby, baby, baby I, I really do love you.

I know you gotta do what you gotta do
When you need to do, what you gotta do
I understand it cause I know I've been there too
And there ain't no one better for you
So when you need to do what you need to do
Listen around and you will hear my sound
Coming to ya, boom boom right through ya
Like no other
