wish i had a coloured tv set I'd sit around all day
And kick my shoes off anywhere wat is it abt those pretty boys?
I wish they'd come alive
And bring some colour to my room...

LA La la....

wish i had a colour tv set I'd sit around all day and let the day turn into night funny people playin up today what a joke it is for them to see me from their screen LA La la...

I wake in the mornin juz to see the sun looked at the window to see people passing by but nothin! juz nothin! i think abt the things to do i think abt my colourful sweet baby!!

wish i had a coloured tv set stay up late at night don't care what happens there and then I'm sick of people knockin at the door juz me my tv set will stick together thru the times...

LA La la.....
