many years so many years
we've been sailing sailing on the seas
those ships distant lands went through storms and laid and laid so still

graveyards dark stars
some lonely princess far away distant islands silent harbours boys and girls and girls and boys they dance

we will take a chance to send you in a trance to
flatter all these ladies
braver than the rest

our companions trusting in
great delights or wasted wasted time sometimes dark sometimes light very cold but so warm inside

sometimes dark and sometimes light

we who take a chance to
