I did join the race
hunting for success
selling dreams was all I knew for the rising stars and I did work hard all my feelings are with you

for the rising stars my important part

where I am
where you are

and I changed my life
and I moved outside
where the water is clean and pure
where the lands are wide
where the air is bright
all my feelings they are with you

yes I changed my life

and I walk up the hill and I can't stand still
'till the day of our last rendezvous and the leaves turn red and I bow my head
