I am thinkin' about something
Oh, yeah
Let's do it

Every now and then you feel
Like jumping off the deep end
Pack a few things head to New Orleans
Commit a few sins

With a good rockin' daddy
That can rock all night
Make you feel good
Make you feel alright

You don't do it, baby
But you think about it

You wanna spend your life, your love
And your money in the fast lane
Let the good times roll
Body and soul, ruin the family name

There's a Devil on your shoulder
And he's talkin' to you
I know what he's sayin'
'Cause I've been there too

You don't do it, baby
But you think about it

Well, we all got a list of the do's and don'ts
Save a little space for the will's and won'ts
Underline things like right and wrong
I could just go on and on and on

Yeah, you want to get crazy girl
And there's no doubt
That somebody's doing
What you're doing without

But you don't do it, baby
You just think about it

Hmm, don't you do it now
But think about it baby, oh

There's a devil on your shoulder
And he's talkin' to you
I know what he's sayin'
'Cause I've been there too

No, you don't do it, baby
But you think about it

No, no, no you don't do it, baby
But you think about it
I'm thinking about it right now

You don't do it
But you think about it

You don't do it
We can't do it
We can think about it
