"Worlds Away"

She packed her life into a suitcase
Chasing a man somewhere in cyber space
Life takes a crash like a virus
The powers off enjoy the silence

(Chorus) Now she wakes up to a brand new day
Will she give the very best that she can
Now she tells him of her master plan too late
And now shes worlds away

Try to relive this sudden emptiness
Try to revive your plastic heart
Take a look around, bitter lonlieness
Looks like your life's been torn appart

Chorus

I found her walking through subways
Hiding her eyes from the light
She looks like a paper queen
And I brushed her hair from her face

Chorus (repeat 2x)

And now shes worlds away
And now shes worlds away...
Masterplan too late
