No one's paved the road to paradise
Or guaranteed that it'd be nice
It's just a long road hard road
Dragging our little red wagon
Till were six feet under wondering
"What the Fuck have I done?
Where did all my time go?"
At times in life you gotta take
A chance and dance on broken
Glass and see who lastsÂ...

Love has tortured
And love has killed
But love has saved a million still
We're all we need two lungs one heart
To face the troubles life does part
Don't waste a second breath
You're deal, Take it, Hold it, Make it felt
One wasted life one wasted youth
Wasted prospects idols too
Your own demise
You're better off alone
No alibis No compromise

No one's paved the road to paradise
Or guaranteed that it'd be nice
It's just a long road hard road
Dragging our little red wagon
Till were six feet under wondering
"What the Fuck have I done?
Where did all my time go?"
At times in life you gotta take
A chance and dance on broken
Glass and see who lastsÂ...

Last night I had a dream
I went to a golden place
A place I didn't recognize
St. Peter don't let me in
He says I don't have faith
He says I don't believe
I don't believe

Love has tortured
And love has killed
But love has saved a million still
We're all we need two lungs one heart
To face the troubles life does part
Don't waste a second breath
You're deal, Take it, Hold it, Make it felt
One wasted life one wasted youth
Wasted prospects idols too (x2)

No one's paved the road to paradise or guaranteed that it'd be nice
It's just a long road hard road
Dragging our little red wagon
Till were six feet under wondering
"What the Fuck have I done?
Where did all my time go?"
At times in life you gotta take
A chance and dance on broken
Glass and see who lastsÂ...
